YOU'VE BEEN ACCEPTED

When you submit a manuscript to Gynecologic Oncology, you expect the widest audience scope, open access, speed of publication and a large impact factor. Most of all you want your work to be accepted, cited and embraced.

You choose your scientific societies the same way. You want acceptance as a member, a varied set of colleagues with a common goal and a forum for the open exchange of ideas.

SGO's newly expanded member model offers an increasingly global member audience: More scientists, accessing shared data and an increased speed of discovery through collaborative research that benefits women with gynecologic cancers.

Join the Society of Gynecologic Oncologists and experience all the benefits of belonging to the pre-eminent professional society dedicated to eradicating gynecologic cancers.

For information on how you can become a member today, visit www.sgo.org or inquire at membership@sgo.org.
