FACULTY

Marta del Pino, MD, PhD, Consultant, Hospital Clinic
Barcelona, Spain | mdelpino@clinic.cat

Dr. Marta del Pino is a consultant in the Gynecologic Oncology Unit at Hospital Clínic de Barcelona and an Associate Professor at the University of Barcelona. She holds a Master's in Statistics and Epidemiology with a focus on Health Sciences. Her career has been dedicated to HPV-related cancers, particularly those affecting the lower genital tract. Following her postdoctoral research on HPV at the Vrije Universiteit Medisch Centrum in Amsterdam, she has led numerous national and international research projects on HPV vaccination, screening strategies, and biomarkers for early detection and progression of HPV-associated lesions. Dr. del Pino has played a leading role in anal cancer screening initiatives in women, especially those with genital HPV-related disease. She also contributed to Spain's 2024 National Cervical Cancer Screening Guidelines and to the implementation of Catalonia's population-based screening program.
